WANT TO FIND OUT
IF YOU'RE A SKEPTIC?

JUST ANSWER THESE QUESTIONS:

- Do you doubt the validity of claims made without supporting observable or testable evidence?
- Do you attempt to evaluate claims based on verifiability and the scientific method rather than faith, anecdotes, authority or subjective convictions?
- Do you utilize critical thinking skills and reasoning abilities to understand the physical world?

If you answered Yes to all of these, then you're a SKEPTIC!

I'M A SKEPTIC - NOW WHAT?

Give up your beliefs based on faith alone and embrace life through evidence. Skepticism is the best way to determine fact from fantasy.

A skeptic doesn't assert that supernatural occurrences don't happen; they claim that supernatural occurrences have not met their burden of proof, sufficient for them to believe it.

When a person makes a claim about the supernatural, the burden of proof is on them. If someone were to claim that ghosts exist, it is not the responsibility of the skeptic to disprove the existence of ghosts, it is the responsibility of the person making the claim to prove that ghosts actually exist.

Anything that really exists can be tested and verified. The truth has nothing to fear from inquiry.
